Appellant.)	Filed: January 24, 2012

Appellant Anthony Collins (“Collins”) appeals the conviction after a bench trial of one count of second degree burglary in violation of Mo. Rev. Stat. § 569.170 (2006).

AFFIRMED.

DIVISION TWO HOLDS: The State presented sufficient evidence from which a reasonable jury could have found beyond a reasonable doubt that Collins was guilty of second degree burglary. The structure which Collins admittedly entered falls within the statutory definition of “building.”

Opinion by: Kenneth M. Romines, J.
Kathianne Knaup Crane, P.J. and Robert E. Clayton, III, concur.

Attorneys for Appellant: Jessica Hathaway

Attorneys for Respondent: John M. Reeves
